SENIOR CITIZENS REPORT

by Mary Ann Holmes

The regular meeting of Madoc and District Senior Citizens' Club No. 473, was held at the United Church basement on Wednesday, March 28th. A large number of members were present. Ten visitors were also in attendance, and several of them joined the Club later.

The meeting was conducted by the President, Mrs. Broadworth, and Miss Raney acted as Secretary in the absence of Secretary Mrs. Johns and Assistant Secretary Mrs. P. Blakely. A number of matters of business were brought up for discussion. It was decided that the Club would attend Divine Service in a group somewhere during Senior Citizens' Week, June 17th to June 23rd. It was also mentioned that the Area Senior Citizens' Picnic will be held in Kingston this year. Mrs. Broadworth asked for suggestions regarding a bus trip to be taken shortly. Cards were signed by the members to be sent to Mr. W. Rollins, who is in the hospital in Peterborough, and also to Mr. Johns, who is ill at his home. The Club members were sorry to hear that Mrs. Lewis and Mr. Bill McCoy are in hospital also.

Miss Alma Moorcroft attend.

ed the meeting and gave a report on the progress being made by the committee in charge of compiling the book, "History of the Churches of Madoc Township", which also includes the churches of Madoc Village.

"Happy Birthday" was sung for a number of members who were celebrating March birthdays. A special birthday greeting was expressed to one of the oldest members, Mr. Baumhour who celebrated his 86th birthday on March 9th. Heartly congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge, who recently celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in playing various games.

A generous lunch was served by the lunch committee and a social half-hour brought the meeting to a close.

The next regular meeting will be held on April 11th at the usual time and place.

The lunch committee for this meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Bandy, Mrs. Grace Gordon, Mrs. Blanche McMurray, Mrs. Evelyn Palmer and Mrs. Farrow.

Charles Conner, 96, Enjoys School Reunion

In the March 26th edition of the "Vancouver Sun" was an article on a recent reunion of the old boys and girls of the Old King Edward High School in Vancouver.

One of the oldest "King Ed Men" present for the reunion was Charles Conner, now 96 years old. He taught at the school for 30 years and has been retired for 30 years. He enjoyed himself immensely at the singalong and skits that preceded the main reception.

A large photograph alongside the article portrayed Mr. Conner singing the "fight" song.

The clipping was mailed to the "Review" by a Mrs. M. E. Elgie of Vancouver, who felt that there are many old timers here who would remember Mr. Conner. Mrs. Elgie says "he is still active and is highly regarded here".

NATIVE OF VENEZUELA TALKS TO CLASS AT C.H.S.S.

(by Ray Herrington and Barry Reid)

Learning about another continent and people was an interesting special education class at Centre Hastings Secondary School on Friday, March 30th, 1973. This learning took place when a grade 13 pupil, Smayra Salaverria, who recently came from Venezuela, and is attending this school.

Smayra's brother is an engineer in an open pit iron mine in Venezuela and he came to work and observe in the Marromaton Mine in November and Smayra will return during the summer.

Smayra has completed her high school in Venezuela and came to this area to learn English more extensively. Centre Hastings Secondary School is extremely good for her as she has several periods per week in the new reading centre. In October, Smayra will attend Catholic University in Caracas, Venezuela, where she will begin her five-year law course.

Some of the boys of this special education class are stamp collectors and were pleased that Smayra brought several stamps to explain about her country.

Smayra likes the stamp of Simon Bolivar best as it was he who brought independence from Spain to many South American countries. In 1811 a special treaty was established, but a battle of 1821 finalized their independence. This story of independence is Smayra's favourite.

Smayra's talk was an excellent one to go with recent slides of South America. Pupils remember community washings done in the river, cows and pigs tied to fences, Andes mountains farmed to the top in most places; other places showed highest mountains of 18,000 feet with snow or volcanoes on the top.

Smayra told the class that the friendly aspect of this school was the part that she liked best. Smayra was welcomed by Ray Herrington and thanked by Barry Reid.

TOWNE MEETINGS AT C.H.S.S.

(By C. Harrop)

This year a new feature has been added to the activities at C.H.S.S. Interesting people from all walks of life have been visiting the school to talk to the students about their activities. These visits are called Towne Meetings.

On March 13th actor Paul Bradley visited the school to talk about acting, the film industry, and his own personal life. Paul's acting career started after he dropped out of school some years ago. He filled many jobs, finally ending up working in a car wash. While working there he decided to become an actor. Paul attended acting school in Toronto for two years. Then he started knocking on doors looking for acting jobs. They were scarce as hen's teeth, but Paul persevered.

His roles include the co-starring role in the top Canadian movie of 1971 "Going Down the Road". His creation of the role of a naive down easterner trying to make his way in the big, bad city of Toronto won the hearts of both the audiences and critics. He also acted in Molson's beer commercials, Cadbury ads, and a CBC production called the "Springhill Mine Disaster". Presently he is working with John Vernon (late of the CBC series "Wozzeck") in a movie based on one of Morley Callaghan's short stories.

Paul is also attempting to do some writing. He has both written, and acted in skits on "Hart and Lorne Terrific Hour" — a CBC Sunday evening show. He is presently buffing up a script for a movie which he wishes to produce, direct and act in.

The students were very interested in Paul. They probed him as to his recommendations for budding actors. "Save up your pennies and go to acting school." They asked him about acting in the nude. Paul said that it was very embarrassing, what with 20 or 30 people standing around the set, and all the

EGGS — COFFEE STYLE

Ever had a complete breakfast in one cup?

This is today's special in a front-street snack bar, where they are now serving quick breakfasts — a whole egg in your coffee!

about highway signs, but no action, other than that already proposed was suggested.

The matter of an information booth was brought up and, after considerable discussion, Ross Moorcroft was chosen to head a committee composed of Ken Adams, Gord Pigden, and Gord Johnston, to check possible sites and design of a booth.

Ross Clark gave a report on membership and asked for any suggestions as to who might be interested in joining. It was suggested that the ladies be encouraged to join and lend their expertise to the Chamber. It was also suggested that those members who employ a staff could bring them to the meetings.

Gord Pigden was appointed to be the welcoming committee for any new business that comes to town.

The appointment of a bulletin editor was deferred to a later date.

The subject of Incorporation was brought up and the Secretary was instructed to contact Art Simpson about the current status of the procedure.

There was some discussion about summer employment for students. The meeting was told that there would be a SWEEP project in operation this year. A suggestion was made that Deer Creek, south of the bridge, could be cleaned up and a picnic area laid out.

Ken Nielsen reported no further information regarding daycare centres.

Ross Clark of Clark Freightways Limited suggested that advertising on the sides of his trucks could benefit the area. The estimated cost of such a project is $500.00 for the first side and possibly less for others.

The meeting adjourned at 9:20 p.m.

Kiwanians & Queen's Enjoy Social Evening

A large number of Kiwanians and Queens attended the ladies night in the Kiwanis Centre last Monday night.

Special guest of the evening was Mrs. Hilda McGowan, who showed slides and gave an interesting presentation of her trip to New Zealand and other points of interest. Mrs. McGowan was introduced by Vice President Ross Clarke and appreciation was expressed by Past President Orval Ross.

During the evening, Vice President Don Bailey proposed a toast to the ladies and Mrs. Sylvia Grose gave a fitting reply.

After the meal, everyone enjoyed a dance and a social get-together.

School Project Hits Star Weekly

Students of Centre Hastings Secondary School, Madoc, were pleased to find a local story in the March 29th issue of the Star Weekly.

This story had its beginning in 1972 when a student, Kathy Dodd of Stoco, was excited by the replies that a classmate Randy Sararas 1972 Stirling Timmy, received from other Timmys and Tammys in Ontario.

It is likely that Kathy Dodd was impressed with stories in the Star Weekly and she wrote to see if they would accept a story about Randy's project. They promised to read a story that Kathy would send.

The school didn't hear about this project again until the Star Weekly telephoned recently to get Randy's photo to accompany the story.

This spring Randy wrote to the Timmys and Tammys telling them to watch for the particular story of the Star Weekly which was only possible because each Timmy and Tammy co-operated with him.

MY WINTER BREAK

By Bill Smiley

Good old unpredictable Canadian weather. No sooner had I popped into the mail my last column, extolling the marvellous open winter and the joy of spring actually arriving on time, than we were hit by the worst storm of the year, howling wind and a foot of snow.

Oh well, it gave those sybarites who fled our bracing climate for the decadent tropics a chance to rub it in to us stay-at-homes when they returned from winter break, sickeningly tanned and fit looking.

This winter break bit is becoming more exotic every year. It used to be called Easter holidays, and wasn't much fun. The skiing and curling were over, the fishing and golfing hadn't started, and the weather was usually rotten.

But in these affluent times, people go winging off in all directions, tracking down the sun or the snow or whatever their pleasure is. Distance and money seem no object.

I know people who flew to Colorado for skiing, flew to Barbados for bikini-watching, flew to Jamaica for rum, flew to Cornwall for Cornish hen, flew to Paris for french fries.

And now the students are getting into the act. From our high school alone, three different groups went soaring off to Greece, Germany and France for the week's holiday.

They were accompanied by teachers, who have the job of planning the trip, collecting the money, and trying to keep their charges from knocking down the Acropolis or straying into a brothel by mistake.

Preventing young pulchritude from being pinched in the Piraeus is not my idea of a fun trip for a teacher. Nor am I thrilled at the thought of stopping strapping young male students from becoming addled in Athens or mauling in Munich.

However, it's every teacher to his own taste and my colleagues who have tried such a jaunt during winter break assure me that the whole thing is a breeze, that there's no more confusion than there was on the Titanic just before she went down.

No matter, it's a wonderful education for the kids. How else could they learn that foreign cabbies, waiters and porters are even greedier and surlier than those at home?

What other experience could teach them that foreign food is not only pretty expensive but often awful, and that there's nothing in the world to touch an honest Canadian hamburger?

Where could they get a better course in driver education than on the blood-soaked avenues of Paris?

Two young student acquaintances of mine took a month off during the winter, and flew all the way to India. They couldn't afford to eat in the big hotels so they just ate what the natives did. They had a wonderful time. They were sick during their entire stay. Now how could they have learned all that by staying in school like all the weak conformists?

Ah, it's just jealousy, kids. I know you boys had a wonderful time ogling the girls in Greece, the belles of Bavaria, the poules of Paris. If I went, I'd have to take my wife. And even if I didn't, I don't know whether I could throw a good ogle any more. Haven't had any practice in years.

And I know you girls discovered what I could have told you in the first place and saved you all that money — that Canadian girls are the prettiest in the world and that the ones from your home town are the prettiest in Canada.

I ask only one thing. You can bore me for hours telling me about your trip. You can put me to sleep with your coloured slides. You can awe me to tears by showing me the genuine gimcracks you picked up for a song. But please, please don't ask me what I did on my winter break holiday.

All right, then, if you're adamant, I'll tell you. I shoveled a foot of snow off the sidewalk. I put out the garbage. I spent a pretty exotic half-hour at the library. I helped my wife vacuum and clean up the house as she didn't want to leave a dirty house in case someone broke in while we were away.

Oh, yes, we went away. We didn't go to Barbados, as we had planned. But we went all the way south to the city. My wife went shopping. It would have been cheaper to go to the Barbados.

And while she was out, battling our way toward the poorhouse, I just sat back in the luxury of our hotel room and had myself a wee of a time marking exam papers.

Then we came home and fed the cat. The whole thing is an experience I shall never forget. It was so much fun I'm already planning next year's winter break.

MILLBRIDGE

Spring is here and everyone is busy at their spring cleaning, both inside and out.

The Community Club ladies sponsored the meal for the hockey players on Saturday evening, March 31st, at the Catholic Parish Hall, Madoc. Everyone had a grand time and a delicious lunch.

Mrs. Verna Peters, Bonnie Peters, Mrs. Frankie Donaldson, Mrs. Mary Feiler and Mrs. Linda Donaldson spent an enjoyable holiday in Mexico City, Taxco and Acapulco. They went by American Airlines from Toronto to Mexico City and returned from Acapulco to Toronto. What a wonderful way to travel.

Miss Joan Donaldson has also returned home from her cruise to the Mediterranean. She accompanied a number of other students from Centre Hastings Secondary School.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peters from Oshawa visited relatives on the weekend.

ST. JOHN'S A.C.W.

The March meeting of St. John's A.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. Lillie Empey, Mrs. Kay Thompson led the opening prayers and devotions. The minutes from the last meeting were read and approved by the President Lou Phillips.

A letter was read from Mrs. Cecil Caldwell, Toronto, who now resides in a Nursing Home there. A plan is to be sent to her, along with our best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Other correspondence was read and dealt with. This consisted mainly of filling out reports and happenings in the church and also nominations for the Annual Meeting in May in Kingston.

The guest speaker for the evening was the Rev. J. Thompson. He showed slides and gave a commentary along with them. The film was, "The Meaning of Lent". Lent lasts for six weeks and leads us to Good Friday and Easter Day.

During Lent each person must prepare themselves for Easter. People learn about Lent by reading the Holy Scriptures, television and newspapers, give news of Lent, and many churches have special Lenten Services. Long ago people would fast for the 40 days of Lent and considered this a time for meditation. Even today people should have some time for communication with God through prayer. A question and answer period followed and everyone felt they knew a little more about the meaning of Lent and thanked Rev. Thompson for his very interesting talk.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Annie Allit on April 10th. Plans for the Daffodil Tea on April 26th will be finalized.

Rev. Thompson closed the meeting with prayer and the hostess served a dainty lunch.

The Easter Seal Campaign is the only province-wide annual appeal for funds conducted by the Society through its 230 affiliated Easter Seal service clubs.

More than 50 years of public support has enabled the Society to develop a province-wide system of treatment facilities and services without equal on this continent.

The Society's services and facilities are available to any physically handicapped youngster in Ontario under nineteen years of age.

FRIENDLY HINTSGRASS SILAGE PRESERVATIVE

It's not too soon to be thinking ahead to grass silage time, and planning your approach to it this year.

Those farmers who have put up grass silage in the past, without a preservative, should take a moment to consider Chemil.

It is a chemical, based on formic acid, a mild organic acid which controls the ensiling process. It reduces much of the need for fermentation, the usual process for producing acids for ensiling. The extra acidity from the formic acid acts quickly to prevent growth of the organisms that cause rotting and smells.

Because of less fermentation in the silage, temperature of the grass is kept lower and less of the original nutrients are lost. Experience shows that palatability and digestibility are to newly cut forage.

What Chemil allows you to do is to direct cut silage and put it into storage immediately. You do not have to wait for sunshine or dry weather, and you can cut your forage the day it is ready. This is important if you want to retain maximum protein content.

Research on feed value of formic acid treated silage around the world indicates that livestock do better on it than on untreated silage. Some researchers note that with less spoilage, more silage was available from the treated forage, making for greater efficiency and hence lower cost per ton of silage harvested.

Call us for details of results of feed tests in Canada and the U.S.A. We'll be pleased to help you calculate costs per ton and method of application also, for Chemil.

Madoc Co-operative AssociationREGULAR MEETING OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

by GEORGE THOMPSON - Your Telephone Manager

Part of my job as manager for Bell Canada in this community is to travel throughout the region and get acquainted with the residents. I always return from these trips with the feeling that much could be done to further our mutual understanding. We at Bell Canada do not always understand your problems and needs. No doubt, there's much we could do to explain our actions and the particular problems we meet in trying to provide you with the best available telephone service.

Bell Canada's job is to provide the technical facilities to make communications easier. But being in the communications business, I am constantly aware that equipment alone does not make for good communications between people. What is important for beneficial communication is the interaction or two-way flow of information between people.

Writing this column is one of the ways in which I am trying to encourage communication between residents of the area and myself in order to help prevent or overcome confusion and misunderstanding.

I have received questions from many of you which have been answered personally by letter or by phone. I'm sure many of these questions concerning Bell Canada would be of interest to other people too. So I plan to publish your questions and the answers in this column from time to time. If you do not want your questions answered in a public column, I shall be happy to answer them privately.

If any of you at any time have a question you would like to ask me, or anyone else in Bell Canada, please write to me:

Mr. George Thompson,
Manager,

lights, etc. . . . He said he wasn't thrilled at the prospects of acting in the buff.
After school, Paul met with the teachers for an hour. The teachers were much more interested in the state of, and the prospects for the Canadian film industry. Paul said that the state of affairs were much improved, but actors still have to scratch to stay alive. He appeared to be very pro-Canadian, having refused attractive contracts from Universal Studios in the U. S. of A.
Paul Bradley encouraged many of the students as he was a drop-out who, through perseverance, had made it.
On March 15th C.H.S.S. had another visitor - Mr. Roy Bonisteel, host of the CBC programme "Man Alive".
Roy spent the morning talking to theatre arts and journalism students. He discussed some of the finer points of hosting a show, and conducting interviews. The students did not realize the difficulties in interviewing other people.
In the afternoon Roy met with students in two Towne Meetings. He discussed education and youth's role in society.
After school Roy met with the staff of C.H.S.S. Here he talked about his own T.V. show and education. The teachers found out that many of the topics chosen for his show come from suggestions in the viewer's mail.
When asked about his favourite show, Roy said that it was probably the programme he did on Rex Humbard. He said that it was very interesting and eye opening.
The Towne Meetings have been a tremendous success. Much of this success should be credited to the organizer of these events, Mr. Ed. Martin. He has spent a great deal of time and effort lining up the guests, and arranging for students to get time off from classes to be able to attend meetings of their choice. Other guests will be visiting C.H.S.S. in the next two months.

WORKSHOPS PROGRAM
The Ontario Milk Marketing Board has announced that it is expanding its program of nutrition workshops to include teachers of grades 4 to 6. The current program covers only kindergarten to grade 3.
The new program for the higher grades features consumer education, testing foods for nutrients and the relationship between food patterns and a country's agriculture. The grades 4 to 6 workshops are in the pilot stages now and will be available to teachers across the province in time for summer school and the fall term.
"We decided to develop a workshop program for the senior grades after the kindergarten to grade 3 workshops met with such success," said Mary McGrath, nutrition consultant with the OMMB. "Teachers in many parts of Ontario have requested the program so that they may continue the work started with the younger pupils. Ultimately, the OMMB hopes to expand the program up to grade 8," she stated.
Starting from the approach used in kindergarten to grade 3 workshops, Miss McGrath and her associates have developed more sophisticated methods needed to interest the older pupil. Consumer education, including food labelling and advertising, comparative buying, and simple chemical tests to analyse the nutrient contents of food are among the activities designed for the grade 4 to 6 student. In addition, the students will examine the relationship between regional agriculture conditions and the type of food produced in that region. One of the more interesting aspects is that the students will have the opportunity to sample ethnic foods which may be foreign to their palates.
The teachers learn the new methods by participating in the activities designed for their pupils. Applications for the grades 4 to 6 workshops are now being received for the school year beginning September '73.
As in kindergarten to grade 3 workshops, the teachers will be able to measure the success of the nutrition program as they go along. After each lesson, the students are given an informal test, so that the program does not progress any faster than the students are capable of learning.
Recent studies in Canada have shown that there is a great need for nutrition education and for overhauling the eating habits of a great many Canadians. While many teachers have recognized the need for more information, few of them have felt qualified to teach nutrition. The OMMB teacher workshops have corrected this to a large extent.
The present program of teacher workshops have corrected 3,000 teachers in 57 workshops. In addition the four OMMB nutritionists are conducting 14 more workshops in conjunction with the Ontario Teachers' Federation Science Workshop Program.

FINAL ICE REPORT
The final ice report of the year shows that all lakes in the Tweed Forest District are unsafe for any type of travel. The lake levels have risen considerably this week with the extensive precipitation that fell during the last week.
Tuesday morning's report showed that in the previous 36 hours we had 1 2 3" of rain and 1" of snow, which has since all melted. Bancroft had 2" of snow, but, again, this has all disappeared except in the more sheltered areas.
The lakes north of No. 7 Highway are solid but unsafe but south of the line are breaking up and hazardous for boats.
Next year, the Tweed Forest Office will be reporting on White Lake, Pleyna and Bon Echo only. Bancroft's reports will come from the Bancroft office and all others will be recorded through the Napanee office.

QUINTE-HASTINGS TRAIL FACES FINANCIAL CRISIS

The 235-mile Quinte nature trail reaching from Lake Ontario almost to Algonquin Park won popular approval and usage — when it opened last year, speedily created with federal winter — work funds.

But no one did much about it. Now the Quinte-Hastings Recreation Trail Association — the voluntary group administering the all-purpose nature resource — has $10 in the bank.

It's not even enough to pay the next phone bill.

The QHRTA should even be in debt already. But a sympathetic landlord has repeatedly waived the rent on its Belleville office quarters, the association's financial reports reveal.

With the public apparently taking the trail for granted, association directors decided to tap local and provincial governments and area tourist organizations for help.

The financial dilemma, directors believe, may stem from the fact it was shaped with public funds — a $133,000 federal Local Initiatives Program grant.

(As originally conceived however, the trail's perpetuation would have relied on citizenship co-operation — formation of community groups, recreation clubs and individuals in a membership contributing financially or physically to its upkeep.

Last year it issued only 23 memberships — for $142.

By contrast, directors learned that the Bruce Trail in western Ontario has more than 4,000 members.

The Highlands of Hastings Tourist Council and the Belleville and District Employment Committee each chipped in $200 to the trail's treasury.

But few extra memberships have shown up so far this year.

Yet, hikers, school students, equestrians, bike-riders and snowmobilers have been using the facility. Some 2,000 Hastings County students are expected to use it for outdoor education classes this year.

The QHRTA received a setback in January when its application for a $73,000 LIP grant was rejected. The refusal also came too late to permit an alternative request for funds under the Ontario government's winter works program.

But such senior government funding may be one reason for the lack of public participation in the trail's maintenance.

It may not be so much a case of apathy as unawareness, Association President Jim Staveley, indicated.

Mr. Staveley said he talked with the president of one club involved in outdoors recreation activity and suggested the group join the trail organization.

"He said he never thought of joining. Since it was built by federal funds he thought it was just there to use."

MADOC WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On March 23rd, the Madoc Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Stan Franks. Fourteen members answered the roll call, "An outstanding help I have derived from the Women's Institute." Among the replies were such things as the W.I. short courses, the friendship involved, and the fact that the W.I. sponsors the 4-H Club in Madoc. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. George Allore. Discussion followed concerning training schools to be offered this next year, e.g. home furnishings, creative stitching, and bedroom and bath decorating. The April meeting is changed to April 27th. Mrs. Ed Holmes reported from the card and flower fund. Mrs. Ken Gordon reported from the executive meeting for the "District Annual Convention" coming May 24th the theme being, "There is only one race - Humanity". She also spoke of the Earl Lee Home located near Barrie. Each institute is encouraged to visit this home and perhaps send a donation to help support it. Mrs. Albert Bailey gave the Consumer's Report. She spoke of the junk foods offered in schools, e.g. pop, potato chips, and candy bars. Since these foods are high in fats and carbohydrates they should not be included where children have a free choice of lunch selection. Many children have poor diets and thus suffer from fatigue and cannot achieve a high level of learning. She also mentioned the soy bean as the protein miracle food which will be used more frequently because of the increase to the cost of meat. Two pounds of soy flour has the same protein content as five pounds of meat or four pounds of cheese. She also mentioned for the benefit of those people having trouble with a major appliance that, if they don't get satisfaction from their dealer, to write to the company itself and if this fails write to the Consumer's Office in Ottawa. A nominating committee was formed for next year.

Mrs. Ed Holmes had charge of the program. She started with the motto, "If you cannot do great things, do little things in a great way". She mentioned the great things accomplished Edison, Bell, and Mrs. Adelaide Hoodless and also the little things done by us common folk, e.g. handiwork and little deeds for others. One needs only to attend a fall fair to see how these little things are done in a great way. She also had a contest about cities in Ireland and closed her program with a bit of humour about the quantity of food you will eat by the time you are seventy, e.g. six tons of meat and four-and-one-half tons of potatoes. If you eat this by sixty-five, you will be pleasantly plump. If it takes seventy five years, you will be slender, and if it takes eighty years you will be skinny as a rail but healthy.

Mrs. Delbert Carman thanked the hostess and a dainty lunch was enjoyed by all, part of which was a birthday cake. Happy birthday was sung to Mrs. Hugh Empey, 84 years old, and Mrs. Albert Empey, 80 years old. The meeting was closed with the Queen.

The Society's 1973 Easter Seal objective is $1,675,000. This figure is based on a careful analysis of the Society's minimum needs in order to meet its obligation to more than 14,000 crippled children throughout Ontario.

MOSTLY ABOUT SOMETHING

(By BEV. BROWNING)

With Education Week beginning on Sunday, April 8th, I thought I would leave my usual format and throw an Educational Quiz at you. (My apologies to Separate School supporters and for those who don't live in Hastings County). Don't look for the answers because they won't appear until next week. (The reader who gets the most correct answers wins the right to do my yard duty during May or gets to write my next two columns).

Seriously, try it and see how well you can do. (Teachers are disqualified — probably wouldn't pass it anyway).

1. The Minister of Education for Ontario is (a) Thomas Wells, (b) Dr. Richard Potter, (c) Alastair Gillespie.
2. The Chairman of the Hastings County Board of Education is (a) Eric Runacres, (b) Thomas Wells, (c) MacDonald Smith.

6. The enrolment as of September 30th 1972 in the elementary schools was (a) 8,703, (b) 12,703, (c) 14,703.
7. The enrolment as of September 30th, 1972 in the secondary school was (a) 9,019, (b) 11,019, (c) 14,019.
8. Each secondary school and its feeder schools have an "Area Superintendent." The "Area Superintendent" for Centre Hastings is (a) Robert D. Herwood, (b) Glen A. Watson, (c) Frank Tate.
9. There are six principals under the Area Superintendent for Centre Hastings. Can you name the six and name the school for which each is principal.
10. The number of miles travelled per annum by all the school buses in Hastings County is: (a) one-half million miles, (b) one million miles, (c) one and one-half million miles.

15. The Minister of Education would let schools run a four day week under certain guidelines - True or False.

Well, there are twenty possible points. I'll publish the answers next week. Meanwhile take part in the many activities being offered in your schools next week.

Till next week (hopefully) I've left you with "Mostly About Something".

"SO YOU THINK YOU HAVE TROUBLES?"

This letter, which appeared in the Seneca Daily Miner and News, was purported to have been sent with an income tax cheque.

Dear Sirs:

I am sorry that the present condition of my bank account makes it impossible for me to send a larger cheque.

My shattered financial situation is due to the federal laws, provincial laws, municipal laws, corporation laws, liquor laws, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, mother-in-law and outlaws.

Through these laws I am compelled to pay business tax, education tax, amusement tax, head tax, and excise tax; even my brains are taxed.

I am requested to get a business licence, car licence, fishing licence, and dog licence.

I am also expected to contribute to every society and organization which the genius of man is capable of bringing to life, to women's relief, the unemployment relief, also to every hospital and charitable institution in the city, including the Red Cross, the Green Cross, the black cross, and to top that off there is a tag day every other Saturday when I am forced to buy a tag and wear it so that I can safely walk along the street.

For safety I am required to carry life insurance, accident insurance, earthquake and tornado insurance, unemployment insurance, old-age insurance and fire insurance.

My life is so governed that it is difficult for me to find out who owns it. I am expected, inspected, suspected, disrespected, rejected, dejected, examined, informed, required, summoned.

"THE HASTI-AGRI-GRAM"

(by W. D. Tipper)

If you look at the calendar you can see it's a busy time for a lot of people for the balance of spring. Most important as always is the 4-H work. I say most important because our rural community has changed so much and is now a mixture of rural and urban people. The one place where they can be drawn together very easily is in the 4-H program. Keep in mind there are two basic programs. The 4-H Homemaking clubs offer excellent programs through a series of projects to the girls. In most cases, they fit in with their school program and complement each other. The 4-H Agricultural clubs offer a wide variety of programs for both boys and girls. When we say boys and girls we should also say young men and young women. There is a fairly wide age spread to take care of the needs of these young people according to their ages and interests. Beyond that there are Farmer Club. Of special interest a fine section on the Provincial Junior Farmers Conference 73 to former Junior Farmer members. Comment on attitude.

1. Use this phrase to draw farmers attention to the current hassel of prices and income. The tragedy of any inquiry is when we try only to find a villain and don't really settle on the full prospective of the situation. If you watch TV, listen to the radio or read the papers, too many people are looking for a villain. The real point is that farm producers are finally getting prices for their goods approaching the returns of other independent business men. Thus it must be an attitude of a farmer to continually point this out to his urban friends. Food can't always be the whipping boy. The same people that scream about food prices are very silent when prices go up. You can name dozens of similar examples. Why not make the point clearly known.

The Honey Story
"THE HONEYBEES MUST HAVE BEEN ON STRIKE FOR HIGHER PAY" was one woman's comment about the current price of honey. Not exactly... but here is what is happening. Canadian beekeepers just cannot satisfy the increased demand for honey. Countries such as Japan, Germany and the United States are paying Canadian beekeepers between 25 and 45 cents a pound compared with 15 cents a pound a couple of years ago. Also Canadian beekeepers are more conscious of nutrition and seek "natural-type" feeds in their diets, further adding to the honey price pressure.
The honey story is not too sweet, but it's one IGA thought you should know.

NO SPLIT FOR HASTINGS AT HIGHWAY 7

Hastings County Council's concern about regionalization of their municipal system could be, in part, the result of misinformation.

According to Hastings MPP, Clarke Rollins, there is no intent on the part of provincial government to split Hastings County at Highway 7.

Mr. Rollins referred to article in the March 28 edition of this week's Madawaska Valley weekly, in which County Warden, Horace Casey was reported to have said, "if the province continues their present trend, Hastings County would be cut in half at Highway 7."

Mr. Rollins emphasized that Mr. Casey was merely passing on information he had received from the County Administrator.

This is definitely not from

ELLIS SUGGESTS USE OF WHEY

Concerned for the welfare of the many dairy processors in his riding, Jack Ellis, M.P., Hastings, asked the Minister of Agriculture if he had considered the fact that a quarter of a billion pounds of whey, which could produce approximately 15 million pounds of pure protein annually, is available in Hastings area each year.

The Minister assured Mr. Ellis that his Department was aware of this, and are considering how it can be done in economic fashion for the benefit of all producers that have to use this protein.

Mr. Ellis was prompted to question the Minister in light of recent reports that the processing of protein may soon become a leading industry in Canada.

Mr. Ellis has arranged for appointments with both the Minister of Regional Economic Expansion and the Minister of Agriculture to follow up the matter.

official sources of the provincial government," said Rollins in a statement Saturday. "The information was obtained from a discussion between Mr. Carl Bateman, County Administrator, and with an unnamed civil servant in the department looking after regional government or a member of a task force on regionalization."

According to the Hastings MPP, this discussion took place in Mid-December 1972.

Mr. Rollins said MPP Donald Irwin in charge of municipal systems east of Metro Toronto attended by invitation, special meeting of Hastings council on February 13, in which he reassured council members there was no truth to the rumoured split of the county.

According to MPP Rollins, the province is not forcing any form of centralized government on Hastings.

He added, the province was waiting for a report from Hastings County on their recommendation for revamping their municipal system.

Mr. Rollins also took exception to the report that Hastings might face regional government in 1975.

"As of the present trend... it could possibly be 1980," said the MPP.

Apart from regionalization, Mr. Rollins is also concerned with the split in Hastings because of changing electoral boundaries.

In the speech from the throne, Premier William Davis indicated the province might review provincial electoral boundaries in the near future.

Mr. Davis' speech drew comment from the Hastings MPP: "I am opposed and will continue to be opposed to any change in Hastings' provincial electoral boundaries or split of the county at Highway 7 as long as I am a member or as long as it is possible," said Rollins.

He continued saying, "It is neither practical nor feasible."

Special displays at various intervals attracted large crowds at "Festival '73", Open House at C.H.S.S. last Thursday evening. Browsing at their leisure, the visitors were treated to demonstrations of judo and wrestling; science, woodworking and mechanics projects; blood typing; business machine operating; a fashion show; and a variety of other interesting topics. Above, two students are making over an old Volkswagen, which will eventually be a dune buggy.

Robinson Emerges The Victor

After seventeen games in the schedule two teams were tied for first place at the seasons end in local mixed curling. This forced a playoff between Robinson's rink and Bateman's family rink. Robinson defeated Bateman with a score of 8-4 to become league champions and recipients of the Kincaid Bros. trophy. Members of rink were skip, Rae, vice-skip, wife Jane and lead and second Lloyd and Sylvia Grose.

Members of the runner-up rink were Bob and Audrey Bateman with son and daughter, Duane and Joanne.

Winners in the north division was the rink skipped by Bob Bonter, with vice-skip Buddy Pigden, second Harold Pigden and lead Diane Bonter. Bob was a first-year skip.

There were four teams tied for second in this division, Brian Danford, Doug Heard, Francis Bosley and Norm Whytock. Since Norm became ill, this team was skipped very capably by vice-skip Lorna Twiddy. All members of these four rinks were presented with curling pins, while members of the other three rinks were presented with trophies.

All were presented at the annual curling banquet held April 7th in the Sacred Heart Parish Hall.

The meeting following showed that the club had had a very successful year, both financially and socially.

Members elected to the executive for 1973-74 were Rae Robinson, Ross Clarke, Cyril Shaw, Francis Bosley, Bill Young, Lloyd Grose, Bev Kellar, Marion Devolin, Dorothy Clarke, Art Miller, and Ron Devolin.

The retiring president, Cyril Shaw and his wife were presented with a very lovely painting by members of the club in appreciation of work done during his two years in office.

This very successful evening concluded with dancing to the music of Doug Mumford and his Land O Lakes Cruisers. See you next year, curlers. (Cyril & Isabella Shaw)

C.H.S.S. Students Win At Rotary Science Fair

Centre Hastings Secondary School made an exceptional show at last week's Rotary Science Fair in Belleville when they topped all schools in the competition. These students took a grand prize, three first prizes and two thirds; but it wasn't an easy task. They were competing with approximately 170 entries from schools in the large area extending north and south from Bancroft to Picton and east to west from Napanee to Brighton.

Robb Horland's project on fuel cells won him top honours in the physical science division. Robb also won a grand prize, which entitles him to compete in the Canada Wide Science Fair at Thunder Bay in the near future.

Edward Mah placed first among 18 competitors in life science for his project on "heartbeat of an invertebrate".

Another first was accomplished by Mark Szumigaj for his entry entitled, "radio sounds and ground station", in the engineering science class.

A team effort by Kevin Munro, Joe Bartok and David York, earned a third prize in engineering. Their topic was, "electric car motor". Also taking a third in engineering was the "Telsa Coil" project by Gordon Miller and Matthew Bergin.

Mr. Raghubir, science teacher at the school, expressed his congratulations to the students for their exceptionally well-made projects, and was very pleased with their accomplishments. Edward Mah said the students are unanimous in their feeling of gratitude toward Mr. Raghubir for his guidance.

School principal, Mr. Wally Beevor, added that he feels the Science Department should be congratulated, as they deserve a great deal of credit for the work they have done with the boys to produce such high quality exhibits. He is personally very proud of these students who have represented their school so well.

SENIOR CITIZENS REPORT

by Mary Ann Holmes

Fifty-two members and guests of the Madoc and District Senior Citizens Club No. 473 met at the United Church Basement here for their regular meeting on Wednesday, April 11th.

President, Mrs. Broadworth, was in the chair and opened the meeting with a word of welcome to all. A special welcome was extended to Mrs. Grace Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. Johns, who are back with the Club again after their absence through illness.

All repeated the Lord's Prayer and a moment's silence was observed in sympathy with Mrs. Fox, following the sad loss of her son.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Secretary, Mrs. Johns, who also read the Treasurer's report, which showed a satisfactory bank balance.

A "thank-you" note was read from the family of the late Mr. Bill McCoy for the Club's donation to the Heart Fund.

The members will attend Divine Service at St. John's Anglican Church on June 17th during Senior Citizen's Week. It was decided that the Club will take a bus trip to Ottawa in late May.

"The Bosley Gang" have offered to come some evening to entertain the Senior Citizens. Their offer was gratefully accepted and a date will be set later.

Mrs. Broadworth gave two short humorous readings.

The meeting was then turned over to Miss Raney, Program Convener, who opened this portion of the meeting with a sing-song, led by a number of the ladies. Mrs. Reid presided at the piano.

Miss Raney then introduced the special guest, Mrs. Hilda McGowan, who has recently returned from a trip to Australia and other points. Mrs. McGowan gave a most interesting and amusing account of her journey and showed a selection of colorful slides about which she made suitable comments. She also brought along a number of articles she had purchased while there. These included a grass skirt (which she modeled), a number of woolen articles (famous Australian products), Australian coins, several opals and many other interesting articles.

The Club, thanked Mrs. McGowan for so kindly leaving her work to bring the Club this enjoyable entertainment. Mrs. McGowan was presented with a gift.

The meeting closed with a social cup of tea, served by the lunch committee.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 25th, at the usual time and place. The lunch committee for this is to be Mr. and Mrs. George Moorcroft, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Broadworth, Mrs. Donehue and Mrs. Sadie Yearwood. Come and enjoy an afternoon of fun and games.

Hastings & Prince Edward Counties Health Unit

The residents of Hastings & Prince Edward Counties Health Unit living in low lying areas, and using private supplies of drinking water, are advised to boil or chemically treat their water which could possibly have become contaminated by the recent high water levels.

Boiling for five minutes or adding five drops of household bleach per gallon is considered adequate, provided that a waiting period of 14 hour is applied if the household bleach is used.

I AINE SHURE WHAT THEY MEEN

(By Bill Smiley)

English is going down the drain, going to the dogs, or going up in smoke these days. Take your pick. Maybe that first sentence is what's wrong with the language. There are so many idioms in it that nobody can speak or write the real thing any more.

University professors have expressed their indignation publicly. A couple of them recently announced that students who expect to graduate in one of the professions can't write one sentence without failing all over their syntax. I agree with them.

But if they think they have troubles they should try teaching English in high school. There has been such a marked and rapid decrease in the standards of written and spoken English that teachers of the subject can be found almost any day in the staff john, weeping into the wastebasin.

This winter, a teacher in a city school decided to prove something she already knew. She drew up a list of forty words, most of them of one syllable, and tested several classes. Nobody could spell all forty. Many of the kids couldn't spell ten of the words.

Her experiment and her subsequent indignation were airily dismissed by a public school principal, who said something like, "Oh, we don't worry much about spelling any more. They'll learn to spell when they need to." Hogwash.

What employer of anything but brute strength wants a semi-literate lout fouling up his invoices, order forms and everything he can get his hands on?

What printer, for example, will hire a kid who can't spell "etaoin shrdlu" and doesn't even know what it means?

I do a fair bit of gnashing and wailing myself when I'm marking upper school papers and have to sort out something like, "The women nu were she was going, as she when they're everyday." The thought is there, but there is something lacking when it comes to felicity of spelling.

Everybody blames everybody else for the sad state of English, but, as usual, you have to read it in this column to get at the truth.

Let us establish the a priori fact that the high school English teacher is faultless. And, some would add, that a fortiori, the high school English teacher is useless. So be it.

Now for the real culprits. They are not the elementary school teachers, much as we would love to blame them. They are victims, too.

First, English had been derogated and eroded for the past couple of decades until it is now down somewhere in the area of brushing your teeth and saying your prayers.

Remember, you older and wiser people who went to school longer ago than you care to proclaim? You had spelling and

LOOKING BACK ...

50 YEARS AGO
April 18, 1923

Of the many desires of humanity there are few more deserving of our efforts towards realization than those of health and long life. From time immemorial directions for the realization of these have been given by those believing themselves competent to direct. Of the many that we have read, few have carried greater conviction to us than the following. These rules, however, are old; they are not new. It is believed that the observance of the following rules will secure not only health and long life but will preserve its disciples from malignant fevers and sickness in general. Eat and drink such an exact quantity as the constitution of the body allows of, in reference to the service of the mind. Get that study much, ought not to eat so much as those that work hard, their digestion being not so good. The exact quantity and quality being found out, it is to be kept constantly. Excess in all other things whatever, as well as in meat and drink is also to be avoided. Youth, age and sick require a different quantity. And so do those of contrary complexions, for that which is too much for a phlegmatic is not sufficient for a choleric. The measure of food ought to be exactly proportionate to the quality and the condition of the stomach because the stomach digests it. That quantity that is sufficient, the stomach can perfectly concoct and digest and it suffices the due nourishment of the body. A greater quantity of some things may be eaten than of others, some being of lighter digestion than others. The difficulty lies in finding out an exact measure; but eat for necessity, not pleasure for lust knows not where necessity ends. Wouldst thou enjoy a long life, a healthy body and a vigorous mind labor in the first place to bring thy appetite into subjection to reason.

The weather has been the subject of much comment especially during the last few days and although we have had weather in great variety, yet few people are willing to say a kind word about it. In looking up the newspapers regarding the weather conditions in other places we think we have just reason to complain of old Probs over the kind of weather that has served up to the people of Madoc. We do not think the temperature has reached 50 degrees at any time this season. As a proof of the unfair way old Probs has treated us we would call your attention to the temperatures at various towns in the north where it is supposed to be much colder than it is here. On April 16th, the Toronto Globe reports the following temperatures: Kamloops, 42 -

80; Calgary, 30 - 82; Edmonton, 38 - 82; Prince Albert, 34 - 68; Medicine Hat, 60 - 80; Moosejaw, 31 - 79; Saskatoon, 45 - 75; Regina, 30 - 65. We think that we can safely promise our readers that a much higher temperature will follow in Madoc as a result of otherwise of our complaint to Mr. Probs.

Wedding - A very quiet but pretty wedding took place at high noon on April 11th at the home of Mrs. Margaret Cassidy, Springbrook, when her youngest daughter, Victoria, was united in marriage to Mr. Cecil H. Bateman, also of Springbrook. The bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her brother, to the strains of the Wedding March played by her sister, Miss Millie Cassidy and looked charming in a dress of brown taffeta trimmed with pearls. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Clare of Marmora.

24 YEARS AGO

Mrs. Mary Thompson, of Seattle, Washington, arrived in Bancroft on Saturday last, after flying from Vancouver to Toronto. Mrs. Thompson, who resided in Madoc for several years, is in her 91st year. She will visit her sister, Mrs. E. Brownson, and brother, Mr. Thos. Hostler, in Bancroft, and her other sister, Mrs. Thos. Rankin, in Madoc, during the summer months. Mrs. Thompson came by boat to Vancouver with her daughter, where she boarded a plane, which flew her to Toronto where she was met by Mr. Simon Brownson, who drove her to Bancroft.

William C. Sills, formerly of Madoc and now residing in Belleville, celebrated his 87th birthday on Sunday last as the recipient of many flowers and birthday cards. The Women's Association of Holloway Street United Church, Belleville, presented Mr. Sills with a pot of daffodils. Mr. Sills was born in Brockville but went to Belleville at the age of three and then resided in Madoc for several years returning to Belleville eighteen years ago. For 15 years he was employed with the Greene Music Company as a piano salesman and covered the Belleville district. He is enjoying good health and looking forward to many more happy birthdays.

Interested parties in and around Cooper have been busy during the past few weeks making plans and getting material for a covered rink. The site has been chosen and the ground levelled by a bulldozer. Recently men and boys went to the woods and cut over 300 logs which will be sawn shortly. In addition, a quantity of lumber is being donated. A Government Grant has been applied for and approved by the Township Council. Already over $1,000 has been raised by donations, two dances and a box social. The building of the arena is under the direction of Mr. Gibson Bailey, of Cooper. Belleville Radio Station, C.J.B.Q., has offered to help raise funds by donating time every Friday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. for the next month for information regarding the project listen to C.J.B.Q. every Friday at 2:30 p.m.

Mr. G. Murray has received a letter from Mr. J. E. Shortt, Director of Hastings and Prince Edward Red Cross Committee, acknowledging receipt of the funds collected by the Kiwanis Club of Madoc, for the Canadian Red Cross Society during their annual appeal for funds. The Committee also wishes to express their great appreciation to all those who contributed to the fund. $670.00 was collected in Madoc.

15 YEARS AGO
April 24, 1958

Reginald A. (Pete) Herringington, 30-year-old Madoc man is in critical condition in Belleville General Hospital with severe head injuries suffered when his light pick-up truck was struck by a Canadian National Railways train on the Old Marmora Road crossing, half a mile west of Madoc. The accident occurred about noon on Tuesday. The injured man was attended at the scene by Dr. S. R. Beatty and taken to hospital by ambulance. At Belleville, Dr. G. S. Cronk said Mr. Herringington suffered a severe cut on the head as well as cuts over each eye. X-rays are being taken to determine if there are fractures. The 1928-model truck driven by Mr. Herringington was struck by the northbound Belleville to Madoc local and was completely demolished. The truck was carried 307 feet along the track where the driver was pulled from the wrecked vehicle. Provincial Constable G. Lebow investigated.

Madoc citizens voted on the question of a dining lounge licence, on Wednesday of this week. 689 votes were cast with 372 voting in favour of the lounge and 317 against it. There were 16 rejected ballots. As 60 per cent is required, the affirmative failed by 41 to get the necessary number of votes. Poll 1, Affirm. 162, Neg. 152, Rejected. 5; Poll 2, Affirm. 210.

O.P.P. REPORT

Seven motor vehicle collisions resulted in three personal injuries and an estimated total of $4,050.00 property damages.

There were sixty-one occurrences investigated by this detachment.

Seven pheasants were stolen from the Vanderwater Park, Hungerford Township. Value of these pheasants were estimated at $21.00.

Four cottages on Crowe Lake were reported broken into. Checks are being made with the owners to ascertain if anything has been stolen.

As the result of a hunting accident in which one person was wounded in the leg one of the members of the party was charged with "Careless Hunting" contrary to the provisions of the Fish and Game Act of Ontario.

Resulting from a complaint of Assault a man was arrested and conveyed to Quinte Regional Detention Centre Napanee, and in turn, was re-admitted to the Kingston Psychiatric Hospital.

Two stolen vehicles were recovered in the township of Hungerford. One had been stolen from the City of Belleville and the other from Stirling. The vehicles were found abandoned in the same location, one day after they were stolen.

Upon stopping to assist a motorist whose car was stuck in the mud an officer from this Detachment found that the subject had apparently taken an overdose of pills and was in possession of a loaded rifle. He was admitted to Belleville General Hospital.

Liquor Violations: 3 impaired drivers and 8 persons having liquor in a place other than residence.

Among other complaints received were: 4 disturbances, 2 erratic driving complaints, one attempt of theft, 1 report of vandalism, and 4 domestic complaints.

Sergeant R. N. Dowe.

Madoc Blue & Whites, champions of the Hastings-Northumberland Intermediate "C" Group, were guests of honour at the regular dinner meeting of the Kiwanis Club on Friday last. The team and the executive were introduced by Hockey President Kel Kincaid and other guests by Past President Wes Hulin. The guest speaker for the occasion was Mr. Lorne Cook, of Kingston, President of the Ontario Hockey Association.

Tuesday evening, April 15th, a very important and special event in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. George Osborne, Bannockburn, took place when a large number of friends, neighbours and relatives gathered at their home in commemoration of their sixtieth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Osborne were married in Queensboro, and have spent their lives in this, and surrounding district, where they made many friends always proving themselves good neighbours and honest citizens. The entire family was present at the celebration, including many grandchildren and two great grandchildren. The evening was spent in visiting and reminiscing and the bride and groom of sixty years ago, heartily showed their appreciation of the callers from near and far. Following a hearty sing-song, Mrs. Osborne, now 80 years of age, sang a solo, by special request. The family presented their parents with a beautiful clock. The Willing Workers' Club of the Anglican Church presented a China Tea Set. Other gifts included Bed Spread, Steak Knives, Towels, House Thermometer, Cups and Saucers, Vases, Dishes, Candy and Cut Flowers.

IN MEMORIAM

BIRD — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Albert M. Bird who passed away April 11th, 1972, and a dear mother and grandmother, Evelyn M. Bird, who passed away November 9th, 1965. Our eyes are moist, our hearts are sad.

Each time we think of Mom and Dad,
Though Mom departed seven years ago,
She waited up there for Dad, we know,
As time goes by we went our way.

We do our chores day by day,
We stop many times to say a prayer,
God bless you Mom and Dad up there.

Always remembered by Mavis and Don and grandchildren, Perry, Brian, Shelley and Danny. 16-1

GRiffin — In loving memory of a dear Father and Grandfather, Norman Griffin, who passed away April 21st, 1972. What we'd give if we could say, Hello Dad in the same old way, To hear his voice, to see his smile,

To sit with him awhile,
So you who have a Dad,
Cherish him with care,
For you'll never know the heartache,
Till you see the vacant chair,
If all the world were ours to give,

We'd give it yes and more,
To see Dad so straight and tall,
Come walking through the door.

Lovingly remembered by the family. 16-1p

SIMMONS — In loving memory of a dear friend, Sylvia Simmons who passed away April 18th, 1971.

She suffered patiently and long,
Her hope was bright, her faith was strong,
The peace of Jesus filled her breast,
And in His arms she sank to rest.

Sadly missed by Gert. 16-1p

"Cash-Flow is the modern way to borrow, based mainly on what you earn — not what you own."

Says R. S. Clarke, TD Manager, Madoc

To get a loan, a few years ago, you pretty well had to own things—like a house, or bonds, or other securities.
Now, however, times have changed. And at Toronto Dominion, we're glad of it.
Today, when you come to us for a loan, we look at your earnings and expenses—or what we call your "Cash-Flow".
To work out your Cash-Flow, simply write down how much you earn, and how much you pay out in fixed expenses. What's left over is the money you can afford to spend, or save, or pay back in instalments when you want to borrow.
Cash-Flow is a realistic guide to how much you can comfortably borrow. It can put the things you want within your reach.
For help in working out your Cash-Flow, see us any time. We'll show you how you can put it to work to get those things that are important to you.

FRIENDLY HINTS

WEED CONTROL

Farmers and gardeners alike fight the common enemy of weeds with both chemical and mechanical methods.

Losses in Eastern Canada in crop yield and quality because of weeds is estimated to be millions of dollars each year, even though 2.5 million acres of cropland are sprayed with weed killers every year.

When combined with good cultural practices, chemicals provide the cheapest and most effective ally in the war against weeds.

But you have to be careful in using chemicals from a safety point of view as well as selection of the right chemical for the right weed. One of the handiest booklets to help you choose and handle chemical weedkillers with care is the 1973 Co-op Weed Control Handbook, available at your Co-op.

Be sure to get one when you drop in for chemicals.

Spray for weeds when they are young, or at the recommended time. In most cases, weeds should be sprayed in periods of rapid growth and Don't take chances as care when the weather is warm. Less use of pesticides is dangerous to animals and humans.

Whether you are spraying in fields, or in your garden, remember that wind will carry spray a long distance and it could damage susceptible crops or your neighbours garden plants. Beans, potatoes, tomatoes, tobacco, turnips, squash, pumpkins and other vegetables and flowers are all very susceptible to damage from 2, 4-D and MCPA. So be sure to spray carefully if your crop is near these kinds of plants, and when there is little or no breeze.

ELDORADO U.C.W. MEETING

On Tuesday, April 10th at Eldorado church, the president of the U.C.W., Mary Blackburn, opened the meeting with an Easter Call to Worship. Miss Minnie Moorcroft using a poem from the Lamplighter opened the Easter Worship followed by hymn, "Rejoice the Lord is King," with Marjorie Carman at the organ. This was followed with prayer. Scripture on Easter passage was read by Mary Blackburn. Meditation on Spring and Women of the Resurrection were followed by a suitable poem. Offering was taken by Audrey Chambers and Lois Blackburn and dedicated, by

Minnie Moorcroft. Alma Moorcroft introduced her niece Miss Donna Moorcroft who showed slides and gave a full commentary of her 2 years service as a nurse missionary at Herbertpur Hospital, India. She was wearing her Surah given to her by an India girl and also had India work articles on display. The pictures were real interesting of a day spent in London and the India customs. The scenery was lovely especially the Himalayan Mts. which includes Mt. Everest. Lunch was served to the group gathered from various churches and a social time enjoyed.

MADOC - ONTARIO

Mrs. Bailey presided and welcomed sixteen members and visitors.

A special Easter Service of Worship was presented during the devotional period. The hymns, "O Come and mourn with me awhile", "It is a thing most wonderful", "Jesus Christ is risen today" and "Thine be the glory," were sung from the Revised Book of Praise.

Passages of Scripture, Luke 23 and Math. 28: 1-10 were read from the New English Bible. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Hawkes. The Easter Thank Offering was dedicated by Mrs. Oria Reid.

Mrs. John Craig, Presbyterial Treasurer, was the guest speaker. She read a portion of Scripture from the Gospel of Mark in the Phillips translation. The message presented, concerned the man Simon, who was coming in from the country and was compelled to carry the Cross. This was the greatest hour of Simon's life as he shared Christ's burden and realized He was the Son of God. Today, we are not compelled to lighten the load to help another but as missionary women, we are challenged to give our time, talents and services for others. At this Easter season we pray that many may be brought to the knowledge of our Lord as the Saviour of mankind.

Mrs. Hugh McIntosh thanked Mrs. Craig for her inspiring message.

A social half-hour was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

THE HASTINGS COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION BUDGET 1973

The Hastings County Board of Education has established an expenditure budget for 1973 in the amount of $24,492,000. The increase over the 1972 budget is only 8.8%, the lowest percentage increase since County Boards came into being. The annual percentage increases have been drastically and gradually reduced from 17.5 percent in 1969 to 8.8 percent in 1973.

The budget meets the ceiling requirements of the Ministry of Education and of necessity is non-expansionary. The restrictions imposed have required a re-ordering of priorities and the only new program introduced is "Curriculum Development". This is a direct outgrowth of the studies of the Board's Curriculum Understanding Committees undertaken during 1972 and is designed to follow-up in a number of areas of concern identified at that time.

The Ministry of Education has for the first time made available the limits on spending for two years, both 1973 and 1974. Because the additional amount available in 1974 will be considerably less than the additional amount available in 1973 - an estimated increase of about 4.5 percent - and because it is unwise to build in costs and people in 1973 that would have to be eliminated in 1974, every economy has been implemented to reduce expenditures in all phases of accommodation and administration. In the Secondary Schools, despite these economies, it will not be possible to replace teachers who resign or retire, nor to hire the twelve additional teachers who would have been required based on formula application to predicted enrolments for September, 1973. This unfortunate change reduces the staff in Secondary Schools by 25 beginning September, 1973. Fortunately, through a combination of attrition and forward planning, it will not be necessary to discharge any teachers in Hastings during the current budget year.

The Trustees are aware that this staff reduction threatens the quality of learning that the Board has struggled to provide. The County is now back to a staff-pupil ratio that existed in 1969 when the Board was formed. The Trustees plan to co-operate with various groups in the County in approaching the Ministry of Education to request consideration of the educational and financial implications of the budget position, complicated by declining enrolments in the Elementary Schools and an accelerated "drop-out" rate in the Secondary Schools.

The Province's share of the total expenditure in Hastings County is up a fraction of a percent in 1973, in spite of press releases which indicated the Government would improve its proportion by 2 percent. In 1972 the Ministry of Education infused the grant structure and produced an artificial tax reduction for most municipalities. This infusion has not taken place in 1973 and therefore the tax requirements are returning to their normal relative positions. Thus the tax requirements in 1973 compared with the more normal base of 1971 reveals an increase of only 5.1 percent for two years, or an average increase of 2.6 percent. This is illustrated in the schedule below.

Of the 29 Municipalities in Hastings County, 16 are still enjoying a subsidy from the Ministry of Education. The subsidy is designed to restrict the rate of annual increase in mill rate in a municipality. The 1973 regulations accelerated the rate of increase allowed with the result that the relative increase in mill rates for municipalities with subsidies is greater than for those municipalities without subsidies. It is evident from the schedule below that the 16 municipalities with subsidies are generally required to contribute at a smaller equalized mill rate than those municipalities without subsidies.

In summary, the Board has produced a non-expansionary budget within the ceilings prescribed by the Ministry of Education, which retains the present status of the Elementary Schools, but imposes some unfortunate restrictions in the Secondary Schools. The implications for Trustees are summed up in the necessity to approach the Ministry. The implications for taxpayers are indicated by the example that on a dwelling with a $15,000, sale value, the increase in taxes for educational purposes will average $20, in 1973.

C.H.S.S. REPORT

(By Pete McMillan)

The last week has gone by quickly, speeded by the activity of Education Week. It started with the Education Week brunch held in Belleville at the Sun Valley. Delegates from C.H.S.S. were Barb Armstrong, Alex Garden, Mr. Beevor and Mr. Hillier.

The theme for this year's Education Week was "Human Values in Education". One of the things this denotes is knowing and understanding the problems faced by everybody else in other jobs. This theme and thought was put into practice in our school last week.

Tuesday of last week was set aside as Student Takeover day. Students changed places with teachers for one class and the teachers followed a timetable all day. In addition, students took over the positions of Principal, Vice-Principals, Librarians, Department Heads and the janitorial staff. Teachers came dressed the way they thought students did and students dressed as teachers.

In the opinion of many teachers and some students the day was a waste of time. One teacher, Mr. Pfeiffer summed it up this way: "On the whole the program Student Takeover was not worth the wasted day. In the minds of most students it appeared that the most important aspect of the day was who got to send whom to the office. Therefore the real stress during the day was on bureaucratic procedures rather than the learning procedures."

I don't know about the wasted time though. Perhaps the lesson learned was worth it. Teachers for the first time got to see the students conception of them. Maybe by this the Education system will be bettered.

Also on Tuesday, in the evening there was the Variety and Awards night. This was the night set aside to honour the achievements of persons involved with youth. The Concert Band performed a few numbers and then the gathering was entertained with dancing, singing and acting by the public schools of this area. As a climax to the occasion two persons, James "Scotty" Cook of Marmora and Capt. Dianne May of the Salvation Army in Tweed were presented with the honour "Educator of the Year." The presentations were made by Mr. Beevor, Mrs. O'Connor and Mrs. Norris.

A reception was held in the cafeteria after the ceremonies. Thursday was the night of open house with its displays, presentations, etc. The Concert Band once again entertained in the foyer for the first half hour. Then the guests were invited to browse around the school to view it. Highlight of the evening were 4 Theatre Arts students strolling about the halls in Tuxedos. The displays included Scientific apparatus, student art, etc. A good time was had by all in attendance.

On Friday some of our more scientifically adapted students took part in the Science Fair at Belleville. Our school took 3 firsts, Robb Borland, Edward Mah, Mark Szumigaj, and 2 thirds, Gordon Miller and Matthew Bergin and prizes were also won by Kevin Munroe, Joe Bartok and David York. Robb Borland, whose exhibit was on the subject of fuel cells, also won a grand prize, one of three awarded, a trip to Thunder Bay to take part in the National Science Fair.

Well, it's almost Easter (another long weekend) and there are a lot of activities coming up. The Theatre Arts class will be taping the play, "Petronella" this week. Hopefully viewers in Madoc will be able to see this on Insight one Sunday night on Channel 4 (cable).

The band is preparing for a trip to Thunder Bay in the early part of May. Also there is a Drama Week being planned for the school in May. Coming the end of April is "Fifties Week" and on the 26th of April is scheduled the first field meet at the school. So watch for these stories and more in the following weeks.

Finally as I mentioned last week I hoped to bring you a thought from a student for this spot. However I haven't gotten the box in the library yet so I'll have to use the old adage, "Procrastination is the Thief of Time."

DRS. STARTING PRACTICE IN MEDICAL CENTRE TOMORROW

Persons having appointments with Dr. C. C. Derry or Dr. Dosa will be using the facilities of the recently-constructed Centre Hastings Medical Centre beginning tomorrow, Thursday, April 26th.

Dr. Derry told the Review that for the convenience of their patients, the office phone number will not be changed from the one at the present location.

The medical centre is located at 151 St. Lawrence Street East, between the park and the Kiwanis Centre.

C.H.S.S. TEAM SECOND IN TROUBLE SHOOTING CONTEST

A two-man student team representing Centre Hastings Secondary School last Tuesday won the second overall prize in the 1973 Chrysler Trouble Shooting Regional Contest held at the Quinte Mall in Belleville.

They are: Duncan Fraser and Dale Levere. The boys were sponsored by Pigeon Motor Sales Limited of Madoc. Their instructor is Mr. Grant Stapley, who is extremely proud of the boys for their high standing in competition with fourteen other secondary and vocational schools in this area.

When the starting gun was fired, the teams raced to their cars to find and repair a series of malfunctions deliberately rigged by Chrysler personnel.

Before the trouble shooting section got under way, each team took a written examination, which counted as 40 per cent of their final score.

The overall prize list in this year's competition totals more than $50,000 in scholarships, tools, trophies and automotive components for competing schools.

A team from Prince Edward Collegiate in Picton were the overall first prize winners in last week's contest.

HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the two-storey house owned by Mrs. Betty Woodcock of R.R. 1, Madoc, last Wednesday afternoon. The fire, which started in the upstairs, had gained so much headway, that when the Eldorado fire brigade arrived they were unable to save the building. However, with the help of the occupants and neighbours, firemen managed to get the deep freeze, refrigerator, stove and a television set out of the house. An estimate of the loss has not yet been made, but, according to Mrs. Woodcock there was no insurance.

BUDGET ALLOWS ONE ADDITION

Hastings county's stand pat education budget for 1973 left room for only one new program — curriculum development.

The sum of $75,000 has been set aside to finance committees studying ways to improve the courses of study. Each committee will plan a revised program for its area of study, prepare guidelines, suggest reference material and set up procedures for teaching and testing.

Steering committees and study committees will be organized immediately and their work will continue during the summer. Consultants from the Ministry of Education, McArthur College in Kingston and the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education will work with the committees.

The formation of curriculum committees resulted from the work of the trustees' curriculum understanding committee last year. It reported a need for more integration of courses from one school to another, course guidelines and quality learning in the fundamentals — reading, writing, speaking, spelling and mathematics.

EUCHRE WINNERS

Winners of the Euchre Party held at the Community Centre in Cooper recently were: High Man, Mrs. J. Dudgeon; Door Prize, Carl Fitzgerald; High Lady, Mrs. Stan Parks; Boobie Prize, Stan Parks; Most Lone Hands, Mrs. L. Courneyea.

STOLEN TRUCK APPREHENDED ON TWP. ROAD

A stolen vehicle was apprehended on a Huntingdon Township road late Monday afternoon, after it was reported missing from a cold storage lot in Trenton.

Apparently, the 1973 G.M.C. pickup, owned by Leo Shettel of 166 Stanley Street, Trenton had been reported missing at about 3:00 p.m. that day. A warning was put out for people to be on the lookout for such a vehicle. Later, the truck was spotted on Highway 62 and followed. It turned off the highway onto the 9th concession of Huntingdon Township, where the driver and a passenger abandoned it and fled into the bush.

Provincial police later arrested two juveniles from Trenton believed to have been connected with the incident.

KIWANIANS DISCUSS SCOUTS IN MADOC

The Kiwanis Club of Madoc held their regular dinner meeting on Monday night, with Bob and Heather Kirkwood and a Mr. Love (from Tweed), as special guests. As the Madoc area is in need of a Boy Scout Movement, as well as Guides for the girls, the local Kiwanians have been working on getting Scouts in Madoc off the ground. This week is Scout Week for members of the Club.

A work night was held last week at the Centre. The ladies washroom is completed, the kitchen has additional lights installed and three windows have been replaced, as result of the work night.

International Goodwill Day will be held at Kingston this year, on April 24th at the 401 Inn, starting at 5:30 p.m. The dinner is at 7:00 p.m. A good number from here are planning to attend.

This evening (Wednesday, April 25th) the Tweed Kiwanis Club will join with the local Kiwanians in sponsoring the Eastern Ontario Concert Orchestra at the high school here. Tickets are now on sale.

M.P. Attacks Government For Change Of Auditors

Speaking on the Canadian National Railways financing bill in the House of Commons last Monday, Jack Ellis, M.P. for Hastings criticized the Government for its policies with regard to financing and particularly its use of auditors saying the whole deal reeks to high heaven.

Mr. Ellis explained that a bill for financing CN was introduced last year, but never passed. That bill overlapped the previous financing bill by six months. The present bill leaves a gap of six months not covered by legislation.

In addition, a new firm of auditors was appointed for 1972 without parliamentary approval as required by the Railways Act. A former Vice-President of this firm is now a senior official in the Department of Transport.

This firm and yet another firm, are requested jointly for 1973 with the latter to be appointed, for 1974.

"Auditors of their calibre should not be used in a political chess game," said Mr. Ellis. He promised to get to the bottom of these and other questions before the Bill left the Standing Committee on Transport, of which he is a member.

Plans were discussed for obtaining new entertainment for this year's annual street dance and it was reported several groups have been approached. More information will be available in the next few weeks.

M.P. TURNS SALESMAN

The food in the famous Parliamentary Restaurants is about to become even better. Jack Ellis, M.P. for Hastings, a former salesman, has convinced the Parliamentary Restaurants that they should use the finest quality cheddar cheese on their cheese trays.

Mr. Ellis frequently takes cheese from the various factories in Hastings County to Ottawa for the members who appreciate its excellent taste. On Monday, April 16th, he delivered a first order of forty pounds to the restaurants.

"I don't mind taking the bit of extra time to deliver it, especially until they get into the habit of buying it regularly," said Mr. Ellis.

In addition, Mr. Ellis has a number of examples of Hastings county produce in his office and expects to enlarge the display. "I am proud of our County and try to sell it at every chance," said Mr. Ellis.

A capacity crowd filled into the large auditorium of Centre Hastings Secondary School last Wednesday evening for a delightful presentation of a spring and summer fashion show. Students, school staff and members of the community modelled fashions for all ages, to the appropriate commenting of Mrs. Sharon Ostman, who also took her turn at walking the runway at certain intervals. Mr. Wally Moffat was m.c. A number of door prizes, worth up to $15.00 were awarded.

S.W.E.E.P. PROJECT TO STUDY WATER QUALITY

At a recent meeting of the Pollution Control Advisory Board of the Moira River Conservation Authority, Mr. Glen Owen, Regional Biologist of the Water Quality Branch, Ministry of the Environment, presented a proposal for a S.W.E.E.P. project.

It is proposed to do water quality studies which it is hoped will result in an evaluation of the waste treatment techniques that have been or are being instituted at Deloro, Madoc and Tweed, with particular reference to the water of Moira and Stoco Lakes. The scope of the project may be expanded to include an investigation of the adequacy or inadequacy of present pollution control exercised by property owners. The project will include a detailed report which will provide a base for future comparison.

The proposed program was discussed in detail and a motion was passed that the Board approve the proposed water quality evaluation project outlined by Glen Owen.

This S.W.E.E.P. program will include one truck and crew to be assigned to assist each municipality in the watershed with pollution and waste clean-up projects.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee at the first of this month, a motion was carried that, all construction and legal requirements having been completed, the contractor be paid in full for Contract No. 338, reconstruction of Deer Creek retaining wall in Madoc Village.

The Committee also made a recommendation that the optioned property, part of Lot 6, Concession 3, Madoc Township be purchased as an addition to the O'Hara Mill Area if the purchase is recommended after an inspection by the Conservation Areas Advisory Board.

At the same meeting, the Executive approved the recommendation of the Information and Advisory Board that Senior Citizens Day be held at O'Hara Mill on June 20th or 21st, as part of the 1973 projects.

CONCERT ORCHESTRA TONIGHT

A large crowd is expected to attend the Eastern Ontario Concert Orchestra tonight in the Auditorium of Centre Hastings Secondary School.

981 DELEGATES ATTEND ASSEMBLY

The 981 delegates to the two-day Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Port Hope last weekend have now returned home.

John Didur, a travelling representative of the Watch Tower Bible & Tract Society addressed a capacity audience on Sunday afternoon on the subject of Divine Rulership.

Rulership is of worldwide concern, which is evident from the attention devoted to politics in the news media and the lengths to which some people go to influence or replace rulers, he stated in his opening remarks, adding that it might be easy to give verbal acknowledgement of God's rulership over the whole universe; but

WHO SHOULD BEEF

By Bill Smiley

It's a long time since I read as much misdirected garbage as I have in the past weeks, concerning meat prices. Directed garbage is when you hit the target. Most of this hit the wrong target — the farmer.

For some mysterious reason, a lot of people look on the farmer as a flinty, money-grabbing character who takes a particular sadistic pleasure in gouging the poor working-man, not to mention the downtrodden executive, professional man, or school teacher.

It's just the opposite. For years, generations in this country, the farmer has been gouged by the rest of us, and here's one consumer who not only believes, but knows, that the average farmer has had a tinier share of our twentieth century affluence than any other segment of our community, including those on welfare, proportionately.

There are a few exceptions. There are a few wealthy farmers. Just as there are a few wealthy teachers. In the case of the farmer, it is the man whose forefathers were lucky enough to clear a farm near a big city-to-be. His land has become valuable for building and he can sit on it and watch the value appreciate. But he's not a real farmer any more.

The real farmer is the fellow who works hours-per-week that would have an industrial worker screaming for the union, owns one suit, hasn't had a holiday in years, owes money at the bank, and has a net income of about $4,000 a year.

He's got to be a gambler, a fatalist, and a man in whom hope springs eternal. He gambles on the weather and the market, must accept disaster with a shrug, and must begin each new season with optimism. More and more, in regions of marginal farming and small, mixed farming, we see that the farmer must have a job in town if he is to enjoy more than a frugal living.

More and more we see that it is only the big farmer or the specialist who can meet the bills and make a decent living. More and more we see that farming has become an industry in which the investment in land, machinery, supplies and labour is inordinate in comparison to the returns.

If an average farmer charged himself wages for his own work, he'd show a net loss. He'd be better to put his money into a hot dog stand.

Let's take an average beef farmer. He has no sock of gold under the bed. He must borrow money to buy stock, machinery, feed, fertilizer. He must pay interest on this money to our established bank, which are no less greedy than they were in the depression. They merely have a better "image" because they have a big public relations programme.

While his beef is becoming beef, this farmer has nothing coming in, except interest charges on his loan. When his beef is ready, does he set the price? He does not. He sells it at auction. Who drives up the price? The beef-hungry consumer that's who.

Marie Antoinette, of ill-fated fame, said of the peasants who protested that they had no bread, "Let them eat cake." I'd reverse that a bit and say of people who say they can't afford beef, "Let them eat barley." It's very nutritious.

Perhaps I'm prejudiced. I grew up during the depression. If we had beef once a week, it was probably hamburger. As a kid, I was sometimes sent to the store for some "dog bones." These were beef bones with some meat on them, and they were free. The butcher knew darn well what they were for — a good pot of soup — but he winked at it.

Many a time our "dinner" was pea soup and homemade bread, with some preserves — wild berries picked by ourselves — for dessert. Nobody suffered malnutrition in that family.

Sometimes our "meat" was the ground-up skins of baked potatoes, mixed in with onions and fried potatoes. They gave it the appearance and roughage of meat, if not the flavour. Jolly good stuff.

In prison camp, meat was merely something you thought about, like going to heaven. But a bowl of sweetened barley! Now, that was heaven.

I'm afraid I rather irks me to listen to a working-man who will buy a case of beer and a bottle of liquor on Friday night for $11.00 whining in the supermarket on Saturday afternoon about the exorbitant price of meat.

And even more disgusting is the executive type. He's just finished regaling you with the details of his $1,000 holiday in the south, snorkelling, rum punch cocktail parties, the works, when his wife starts howling like a hyena because their food bill is up three bucks a week.

There are some holes in the chain of food prices. But don't blame the farmer. He's the last to benefit when prices go up, the first to suffer when they go down.

Show me a rich farmer and I'll show you a rich weekly editor, or a rich school teacher.

C.H.S.S. REPORT

(By Pete McMillan)

Well another week has passed with considerable activity. With the weather being so warm and sunny, the school seemed to have come alive again. Not that it's been dead, mind you, but it is a nice touch to be able to sit outside after lunch. Classroom windows could be opened again without a flurry of protest from half the class and the classes seemed more comfortable. It's nice to be able to enjoy it, but it won't last forever because we'll soon have to start worrying about exams, etc.

On Tuesday of last week the school was treated with a display of slides showing Canada. The display, a part of the series of Towne Meetings, was given by Mr. George Vincent, a noted lecturer on Canada and South America. The display was very interesting, showing our country from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Within the confines of time (45 minutes) Mr. Vincent explained and commented on the pictures.

Then on Wednesday there was another assembly. This time we were treated to a display of fashion. The show entitled "Spring Into Summer", featured students from the high school as well as some adults and younger children. The clothes were supplied by stores of the area. It was interesting to see people who have classes with walk down the platform so cool and calm. They were just great and everyone involved with the show should be congratulated on a fine job.

Also this week the Theatre Arts class started filming "Petronella". On Thursday, the class transported the portable studio to the location. That's when the problems started. When the two cameras were set up it was discovered that one did not want to work. Hence there was only one camera left and the script was written for two. So with the characteristic good nature and versatility of the class (there's no people like show people) the script was amended and the scene was shot successfully.

All last week the Cadet Band has been practising diligently for a parade in Niagara Falls, while the C.H.S.S. Concert Band will be travelling to Tweed on Thursday, April 26th to play at the public school.

This week is Fifties Week. There are contests of all sorts planned, a dance on Thursday featuring "Percy and the Teardrops" and also an assembly on Tuesday. On Wednesday evening is a Concert by the Eastern Ontario Concert Orchestra. So watch next week for these stories and more.

Well I did get the thought box set up in the library on Wednesday of last week. However it hasn't been out quite long enough to get a response so I'll have to leave you with this thought: "Only 7 more weeks of school."

In addition to building operations previously begun there, is considerable building activities in the village just now. Mr. Blue is enlarging and re-constructing the garage just south of the skating rink. The town has leased the property from Mr. Blue to house the fire and chemical engines. Mr. Caverly is blasting out the rock at the rear of his house on the corner of St. Lawrence and Madawaska, where he intends to erect a bake house. Mr. Barrie is preparing the foundation of a house to be erected on St. Lawrence street between Constable St. Charles' and Mr. Caverly's properties.

Considerable excitement was caused last Monday afternoon by the ringing of the fire bell. Small blazes and a tremendous smoke were seen rising from the commons on Livingston Avenue nearly opposite W. E. Connor's home. The new chemical engine was quickly on the scene and people were seen running in all directions. A brush heap was found to be on fire. Some wag rung the bell just to create a little excitement.

In the early days of silver mining there was net a tree within sixty miles of the mining camp and town of Tonopah, in Nevada. The result of that building materials and fuel commanded enormous prices. On this account Tonopah has achieved fame apart from its mineral wealth. Owing to the high cost and scarcity of lumber, all sorts of makeshifts were employed in the architectural make-up of the town. There were houses made of straw; burlap sacks trimmed with blue-jean overalls; tin from five-gallon oil cans; dry goods and cracker box lumber; mud; stone and tent cloth. It remained for William Peck, a miner, to devise a house in a class by itself. With empty beer bottles Peck constructed a dwelling 16 feet by 20 feet, with a ceiling eight feet high. It was built in a month, at such odd moments as the miner could spare from his regular work. Ten thousand beer bottles were used. The inside walls were plastered with mortar, which was spread to a depth sufficient to cover the protruding bottle necks, thus making a smooth surface. Peck lived in this peculiar house with his wife and two children, a girl of seven and a boy of three years, and stated that while the temperature in many houses in Tonopah reached freezing point quite often, his family found their glass house quite comfortable at all times.

24 YEARS AGO
April 28, 1949

Lost for five hours late last Friday afternoon, nine-year-old Ralph Chamberlain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chamberlain, of L'Amable, five miles south of Bancroft, was found by a search party of 75 men headed by Cpl. Stan Palmateer and Const. W. Fitzsimmons, of the O.P.P. Detachment at Bancroft. The boy had gone to the bush with his father and while Mr. Chamberlain was cutting logs, the lad wandered away. He was found five hours later on the bank of L'Amable Creek, some two miles from the point where he had disappeared.

The Officers' Mess at Picton Armouries was completely destroyed by fire early Wednesday evening. Damage will run into thousands of dollars and has not yet been estimated. Several valuable trophies were lost.

One of the Presbyterian Church in Canada's most distinguished ministers, Rev. John W. Foote, V.C., has received the honorary degree of doctor of divinity from the Presbyterian College, Montreal. Dr. Foote is a native of Madoc and well-known in the district.

Hon. Leslie Frost, Provincial Treasurer, was elected leader of the Ontario Provincial Progressive Conservative Party and the next Premier of Ontario, on the first ballot, on Wednesday afternoon during the Convention held in Toronto, this week.

Albert Hinton, of the Riverdale Kiwanis Club of Toronto and Lieutenant-Governor of the Ontario-Quebec-Maritimes District, was the speaker at the regular meeting of the Madoc Kiwanis Club last Friday evening, on the occasion of his official visit. Madoc being a new Club, the speaker spoke on 'Kiwanis work and gave a timely interesting and educative address, which was well received by the large number of members and visitors present. The speaker was introduced by Chas. Johnston and Kiwanis appreciation was extended by Percy Locke. Six members of the Riverdale Club accompanied the Lt.-Governor and held an interclub meeting at which the Madoc Club was presented with a travelling gavel. By request, the quartette, composed of Stanley Hawthorne, Jack Kincaid, George Duffin and Ken Holmes added to the evening's program with their version of when "Casey Lowered the Boom." During the evening the Madoc Club was presented with a cheque by Bill Cockburn, of the Riverdale Club, to purchase complimentary tickets to the Song Recital for all Madoc High School students.

Weddings — Against a background of assorted flowers with pink and white streamers in St. Oswald's Anglican Church, Millbridge, on Saturday afternoon, April 23rd, the marriage of Norma Jean Adella Armstrong, of Millbridge and Kenneth Maurice Thompson, of Madoc, was solemnized.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Tumulty, Madoc Township, was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers, daffodils and spring flowers for the marriage of their daughter, Sadie Victoria, to Donald Miller, of Madoc, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Miller, on Saturday, April 9th, at high noon. The Reverend Alfred Poulter, pastor of Trinity United Church, Madoc, officiated.

15 YEARS AGO
May 1, 1958

An eight-year-old Deseronto school girl died instantly at her home just west of the town early Tuesday evening when a 12-gauge shotgun in the hands of her older brother and a school chum accidentally discharged. Provincial police said that the charge from the gun struck the girl in the back from a distance of only about two feet. Dead is Gail Mowbray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jae Mowbray. The children were alone in the Mowbray house at the time of the accident. Police said that the 12-gauge pump had been taken from a closet and a shell was placed into the breach. Reports were that Jay Robert Fraser, aged 10, of nearby Deseronto, had hold of the stock of the gun when the girl's brother Wayne, also aged 10, with his hand on the barrel above the pump action, had shoved his hand back to loosen the grip of the other boy, the gun discharged. The little girl was kneeling in the kitchen sink looking into a mirror and applying some of her mother's lipstick when the charge struck her in the lower back. The Mowbrays have one other boy, Albert, aged 6 years.

About 60 persons Saturday escaped from a fire which burned out the three-storey Empress Hotel, causing damage estimated at $1,000,000. Firemen battled the blaze for 10 hours before bringing it under control. It was still smouldering Sunday. Only a small section of an addition built five years ago, was saved. The fire is believed to have started in an exhaust fan in the hotel's ground-floor coffee shop. Coffee shop manager Carl Burton said some grease in the kitchen caught fire and flames spread through the exhaust system to the rest of the hotel. The exhaust system runs from the coffee shop to the hotel roof. Police, and civil defence units were called out to hold back shopping crowds as firemen from Peterboro and four nearby communities tackled the flames. Several firemen were overcome by smoke, but none were injured. Firemen wearing masks searched all the rooms in the building and reported all guests apparently had escaped shortly after the alarm sounded. One male guest, in the bathtub at the time, ran out of the hotel clad only in a towel, shirt and shoes. Owner Cyril Fuller, of Toronto, who gave the damage estimate, said he will rebuild as soon as possible on the lines of a motel.

Police said that investigation into two 1956 robberies, one of which netted $38,000 in cash and bonds, and a bank robbery last February, will be reopened following conviction Thursday of a man charged with possessing instruments for the purpose of vault-breaking. Ronald Hayes, 26, of Toronto, was convicted at a trial before Judge Ambrose Shea and sentenced to three years. Police who searched Hayes' room last month said they found detailed maps of Avonmore, 15 miles northwest of Cornwall, and Madoc Village. They said they also discovered plans for a portable radio capable of monitoring provincial and municipal police calls, instructions for making bullet-proof vests, formulae for face dyes and for nitroglycerine and the proper ratio of gas to use to obtain a cutting flame from an oxyacetylene torch. They said the plans listed banks, building locations, means of entry to banks and other buildings, which locks worked and where police were likely to be at various times of the day and night. Cpl. Douglas Sears, of the Madoc detachment of the provincial police, said the Toronto-Dominion Bank Branch here was broken into in 1956 by methods shown in the plans.

TOPS MEETING ON1146

A meeting of Tops Club ON1146 was held on Wednesday, April 18th, and was opened with the pledge and roll call. There were 11 members present. Gladys Patterson won the rose for having lost three pounds. She also received $3.00, because this was her fifth rose.

The Easter Contest was tied by Gladys Patterson and Glenn Lee who each won $5.00 for having equal points in the Tops, while Tyne Tufts was the Kops winner who also received $5.00.

Congratulations, girls!

It was decided to have another contest on the point system, with the losing teammates buying the winners a gift. It will run until the end of May.

Audrey Pogue purchased the auction gift for 55 cents. Judy Chapman and Gladys Patterson agreed to bring next week's auction gift.

Glenn Lee read a letter concerning Tops' silver anniversary in Canada and it was agreed this club would send a donation to have the chapter's name imprinted on the scroll to be presented to Esther Manz. She was the leader who started Tops in Canada.

The weight-recorder's report was a total loss of 10 1/2 pounds. The meeting was adjourned.

O.P.P. REPORT

For the week commencing April 13th and ending April 19th eight motor vehicle collisions resulted in two personal injuries and $6,175.00 property damages.

TAX TIPS

For further information, call the District Taxation Office. If you live in a toll area, ask your long-distance operator for ZENITH 0-4000 and your call will be placed without charge.

Q. I have a bank savings account and I have received a T5 slip showing the interest I have to report for tax purposes. However, every time I write a cheque on this bank account the bank charges me for this. Can I deduct the bank's service charges from the investment income?

A. No. The cost of writing cheques on your savings account is a personal expense which is not deductible from interest for income tax purposes.

Q. I intend to change jobs, and my employer has already made all the Canada Pension Plan deductions I will be required to pay this year. Will my new employer still be required to make Canada Pension Plan deductions from my salary?

A. Yes. Each employer must deduct the required contributions from each eligible employee regardless of what has been deducted for Canada Pension Plan by any other employer during the year. However, you may claim a refund of any overpayment you have made, when you file your individual income tax return.

 that Christians must manifest the significance of that rulership in their daily lives.

Divine standards on personal morality, family life, and our dealings with others are no secret, Didur pointed out, we all know them, "but ask yourself," he continued, "Do I chafe under these standards, or do I delight to live by them? To act otherwise, in effect, would be to say, 'God I reject your rulership'."

Didur also indicated that choosing to uphold divine rulership may bring severe pressure on a person as the events in Malawi lately have shown.

This may be particularly so as nationalism grows stronger and tensions in the world increase in spite of efforts to ensure international peace.

Peace and many other benefits that the nations may arrange are only temporary, as history has amply shown. The speaker concluded, real peace and security, however, can and will be brought about by God and it is imperative that we now recognize this divine rulership, decide for it and direct our lives in accord with it, just as the 15 new Witnesses who were baptized Sunday morning have decided to do.

Belleville Presbyterial U.C.W. Holds Workshop On Key 73

Representatives of the various locals of the Belleville Presbyterial U.C.W. met at Trinity United Church, Belleville on Thursday, April 12th for a workshop on Key 73.

Miss Helen Sexsmith, the president, welcomed everyone to the workshop. She said she was disappointed that there were not more in attendance but she was happy to see everyone who was able to come.

The workshop was under the very capable leadership of Rev. Frazer Lacey, Conference Minister in charge of Programming and Leadership Development; Dr. Norman MacKenzie, Associate Secretary of Evangelism of the Division of Mission in Canada; and Rev. John Anderson, Special Assistant of the Division of Mission in Canada with responsibility to Youth Ministry.

The leaders opened the morning session with a Panel Discussion on, "What the Good News Means to You". In a world where there is much unhappiness and suffering they have found that the Good News makes sense out of life and that life can have purpose and be exciting. It is the answer to personal needs. There are many ways to try to find meaning to life but the others all lead to a dead end. The Good News tells the world that by living a life of love a Christian can find a life of meaning and excitement anywhere.

Following the Panel Discussion an interesting and thought provoking film, "Come Back" was shown and discussed.

Dr. Norman MacKenzie showed some literature that he recommends as interesting and helpful for Key 73. Rev. John Anderson spoke on the use of Posters. He said that very often they can stimulate thoughts that speakers cannot express and they bring out different thoughts from different people. He presented several posters for viewing and discussion.

In the afternoon session a short dialogue about a conversation on the Golf Course, and a film, "Right Here, Right Now" turned thoughts to the afternoon theme "How We Communicate the Good News". The Good News relates to all areas of life. If we are to communicate the Good News we must have a sensitivity to people in need. Evangelism starts with a mans relationship with God and that faith demands that he become concerned and involved in the world around him.

The day concluded with reports on Key 73. Rev. Frazer Lacey said that at the Conference level, Workshops have been the main highlight. Dr. Norman MacKenzie reported that he is happy to see interdenominational workshops and that Key 73 has been a stimulus to Bible Study, Discussion Groups, and Visitations. All across the country he has seen a spirit of openness among the churches.

Mrs. T. H. Kerr thanked the leaders for presenting such a successful workshop was closed with a prayer.

Pickering nuclear power station's fourth unit is expected to start up in May, Ontario Hydro Photo.

WORLD-BEATING NUCLEAR STATION

Ontario Hydro's Pickering nuclear power station, Canada's first full-scale commercial nuclear plant, is performing beyond expectations. With only three of its four reactors operational, Pickering attracted international attention when in December 1972 it produced more electricity than any other nuclear power station in the world.

Recent high capacity factors of over 99 per cent for all three reactors will be a topic of discussion at the internationally attended Canadian Nuclear Association convention in Toronto in June. Ontario Hydro's Chief Engineer H. A. Smith will talk on the development of the province's CANDU-concept stations — pressure tube reactors using natural uranium fuel and heavy water for moderator and heat transfer fluid.

Three nuclear power stations are operating in Ontario — 20,000-kilowatt Nuclear Power Demonstration, a pilot plant, 200,000-kilowatt Douglas Point, a full-scale prototype, and 2,160,000-kilowatt Pickering. Bruce nuclear power station, under construction near Douglas Point, is slated to start operating its first unit in 1975. Completed capacity will be 3,200,000 kilowatts.

(but not necessarily)
(By BEV. BROWNING)

Since the most difficult part in writing this column is starting it I've decided to start in the middle and then add the beginning or end; whichever comes first.

Laugh But It's True Department: A meteorologist in San Salvador (Central America) recently accused the United States of stealing its rain. Now, the U.S. gets accused of many things, but stealing rain! (Boy you must really hate your mother to steal another guy's rain). Just imagine the size of the funnel you would need to mention the length of hose. (Hey guy look at those airplanes towing those clouds northward).

The truth in the matter, after closer examination, is that the meteorologist figures the U.S. hurricane control experiments could be causing the lack of rainfall in San Salvador. Could be.

Another story which I believe comes from the U.S. involves an inventor who makes methane gas from pig manure. Now, you farmers all these years have been shovelling away a fortune (well stockpiling it anyway). Can't you just see in the future (if this catches on) — headlines in the daily newspaper, "Transport Carrying Manure Hijacked on the 401."

Now for the truth in this story. It appears an inventor, Harold Bates has found a way to make methane gas from pig manure. In fact he claims any manure can be used. He gets about eight gallons from every one-hundred pounds, and claims the waste can be used as fertilizer. The gas, he uses in his car and says he gets more power than from the regular automobile petro.

Well, don't laugh too hard. With the energy crisis you may find yourself pulling into your local service station and instead of asking for regular or super it may be horse, cow, pig or low octane chicken gas.

Finally, if I may again return to another incident in the U.S. The city council in San Francisco, which rules on advertising for their transit system finds an ad for the Happy Hooker acceptable and banned an ad on contraceptives warning against venereal disease.

And so the world turns in its funny but true way.

The stories I enjoy most in the daily newspaper or weekly or monthly magazines are the odd stories. I find them more entertaining than the tales of war or of violence that fills our front pages day in and day out. (For you readers still with me — this is the beginning of the column).

Odd stories, like, where in Italy they caught the candidates for magistrates cheating on final examinations. Apparently, they had two-way radios in their shirt pockets. (Now, if you can't trust your local magistrate whom can you trust).

Congratulations Dept.: To Edward Mah and Mark Sz - (excuse me a moment I have to look this one up) Szumiga for winning first prize in their divisions in the Belleville Rotary Science Fair on April 13th (who said Friday the 13th was unlucky?).

Also, congratulations to the Marmora Pee-Wee team for winning the Ontario Pee-Wee 'D' Championship last Saturday in Ilderton. (That's the fourth year in a row the Trent Valley League has won that trophy).

Things That Bug Me Department: The seven per cent tax they are going to put on electricity and fuels used for heating. (When are they going to stop giving us a nickel in one hand and taking a dollar back with the other.) At this rate of taxation, by 1980 I'm not going to be able to afford to work.

Headlines in daily newspapers read, "Taxation to Aid the Poor and Old." Don't worry, dear readers, as you grow poorer you will grow older worrying about it. Then we will all benefit by it. (Sure gives you that incentive to get out and better yourself doesn't it).

Well I finally got through a column without mentioning my kids, honest, goodlooking mother-in-law, or my daughter who would rather eat dirt, rocks and ashes than good wholesome food or my wife who keeps stockpiling food for me to eat during the week she will be in the hospital (what am I going to do with 240 tea bags?). Wasn't that a pleasant relief for one week.

Things I Enjoyed This Past Week Dept.: Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Till next week (hopefully) I've left you with "Mostly About Something but not necessarily".

ALONE

I walk through the large crowd alone
I have problems,
I seek answers,
I tell them some of my problems,
They listen,
They sympathize,
I ask for advice; they have none,
I continue
Seeking answers

Beneath their smiles and laughter
Is everyone alone?

PHONEY $5 BILLS IN BY WARD AREA

City police are urging area residents and store operators to be on the lookout for old-style counterfeit Canadian $5 bills.

During the last month 200 of the bills have appeared, most of them in the By Ward Market area. The blue of the phoney bills is a shade lighter than genuine $5s and the Queen's portrait has a greater grey tone to it.

Serial numbers on the phoney bills range from VX3357950 to VX3357959 and are of "exp-tionally good quality," a police spokesman said.

The other main discrepancy is the planchettes, little green dots which can be lifted off the phoney bills.

The planchettes in genuine bills are mixed into the paper during production and can not be plucked off.

Most of the bills have been picked by banks from business deposits. Police warn that anyone who knowingly passes a counterfeit bill — whether he's the original pusher or a store operator who passes the phoney money to someone else rather than suffer the loss himself — is liable to 14 years in prison.

EQUIPMENT CHAIN DRIVE MAINTENANCE

Chains used for driving farm equipment vary from chain link, to pintle to steel roller types, depending on their use. Bale elevators use chain links, as does equipment for other light work at moderate speeds. The pintle chain drives heavy, slow speed, exposed equipment. Steel roller chains are especially designed for high speed and heavy work and so need extra attention for long life.

Lubrication — Oil any chain link and pintle chain types frequently, and keep them clean and properly adjusted.

Roller chains need extra special care if you are to keep them in good condition. Remove them from use after 30 hours of operation, roll up the chain and soak it in kerosene or var-sol or other oil solvent. Agitate the chain in the solvent to be sure all parts of the chain are cleaned. Drain and then soak the chain overnight in SAE 30 oil.

Drain before installing on clean sprockets.

Adjustment — Chains must have proper tension or unnecessary wear will develop in the chain or the driven equipment.

Roller chains usually have idler pulleys or wooden or nylon blocks for adjusting tension. While some "give" is required on the run side of the chain opposite the idler, it should not be excessive. About 1" up and down play on the slack side for sprockets 2 feet apart is about right.

If chains are too tight, too much stress is placed on bearings and sprockets. If too loose, links and sprocket teeth will wear. Be sure all idlers and sprockets are in line.

TWEED DISTRICT COUNTS ITS BEAVER

The Ministry of Natural Resources' fish and wildlife staff in Tweed District has been busy counting beaver. This census is not being undertaken with a view to taxing the beaver population - not now at any rate - but to provide information on which to base improved management of the district's fur resource.

Crown land is trapped on a quota basis. The ministry grants a trapper a licence to trap a set number of beaver (his quota) from a certain piece of the Crown land. In the past, these quotas had to be determined largely from information given by the trappers themselves. Quotas were based for the most part on how many beaver a particular trapline had yielded in past years weighed against the trapper's own estimate of how many pelts he felt he could take without depleting the basic population. In general this system worked well enough; most trappers are aware they can damage an important source of income by over-trapping. Wildlife management officers, however, suspected that many areas were being under-trapped.

In many ways this is just as serious as over-trapping. Where beaver populations are under-trapped, over-population can result. Food supplies dwindle, fur quality suffers and, in some cases, disease and starvation can wipe out entire colonies.

To prevent under-trapping it is necessary to know how many beaver a trapline produces each year and how many of these can be taken while still maintaining an optimum population level. This winter, under the Ontario Seasonal Employment Program, 12 crews of two men each have been employed throughout Tweed District to determine the fur potential of the various Crown land trapping areas. Working primarily on foot the crews travel the watercourses in each trapping area. They locate and map the beaver houses and determine how many of them are occupied. They assess the availability of food both for the present and for the future. The crews also look for areas where beaver have caused excessive flooding and damage to habitat of other wildlife. In addition, the crews report any other findings that might be of interest to wildlife management officers; evidence of mink or other fur bearers, a wolf pack, or perhaps a pocket deer yard.

Wherever possible each crew is made up of a wildlife management technician and a trapper from the area being assessed. The trapper's years of practical experience and his knowledge of the area are invaluable for locating beaver ponds, determining whether beaver are there, and for assessing the available food supply. The technician's training, on the other hand, assures that the right information is recorded completely and accurately. Together the two factors, practical experience and technical training, make for a solid team providing singularly reliable information.

Once the number of houses with beaver in them is known it is simple to determine the total number of beaver in a trapping area, since the average number of beaver per house in this area has already been determined by previous studies. From food supply information it can be further determined whether the population of a given area is likely to increase in the future, remain stable, or decrease.

Once the results of the crews' work is in and this information assembled, it will be possible to calculate accurately the maximum number of beaver that should be taken from a given area. Quotas will then be set accordingly. It is hoped that the present assessment will reveal a previously unharvested fur potential for the Tweed District that will allow many trapline quotas to be raised significantly.

What is pasteurized honey...
Honey is sold in various sizes and containers but it's a more economical buy in large containers. Honey keeps almost indefinitely in the freezer. Honey has no changes occurring in flavor or texture.
This may be either liquid or creamed honey that has been heated or "pasteurized" to destroy yeasts that might cause the honey to ferment. Pasteurization does not affect the quality of honey.
